ABOUT ME

Graduate student in Marriage, Couple and Family Counseling at Duquesne University, practicing artist, and former product designer with a growing focus on art activities and expressive approaches to emotional well-being. I enjoy creating opportunities for people to connect, communicate, and express themselves through creativity, and have experience facilitating art workshops and volunteering with art activities for patients in senior healthcare communities. I bring a thoughtful, compassionate, and collaborative approach, with strengths in active listening, organization, facilitation, and creating welcoming spaces where people feel comfortable participating and expressing themselves.

EDUCATION

ART & CREATIVE PRACTICE

Artist & Creative Practitioner · Independent Artist · Pittsburgh, PA 2020–Present

- Maintain an independent studio practice focused on contemporary painting and expressive visual exploration.
- Develop and exhibit original artwork through independent and community-based exhibitions.
- Manage creative projects from concept development through production, presentation, communication, and promotion.
- Use painting and visual expression to explore inner experiences, emotions, and the stories we carry with us.
- Participate in the Pittsburgh arts community through exhibitions and creative programming.

ART ACTIVITY & COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERING

Art Activity Volunteer · Jewish Association on Aging · Pittsburgh, PA Summer 2024

- Provided art classes and art-based activities for individuals living with dementia.
- Used creative engagement to encourage self-expression, connection, and participation.
- Supported participants with patience, empathy, and individualized attention.
- Observed how creative activities can facilitate communication and emotional expression when verbal communication is difficult.
